An Overview

The Government of India has started tracking the import of various products in the country by making import registration mandatory to the importers. The Government made import registration compulsory for a host of electronic integrated circuits (ITC HS Codes: 85423100, 85423900, 85423200, 85429000, 85423300) under the chip imports monitoring system (CHIMS).

The registration under CHIMS would be available from 1st October 2021. The registration window is open under CHIMS for applying till the time of import shipment arrives but it has not to be done earlier than 60th Day.

The Legal action would be taken on-chip importers who are failing to register under CHIMS in advance or found to furnish wrong data in the online system. The Ministry of Electronics will monitor the information of chip imports provided by the importers under CHIMS.

Objective of CHIMS

The objective of introducing the CHIMS is to enable the Government of India to maintain and update constantly a database containing the advance information of the following products imported in India.

List of goods required registration number under CHIMS

ITC (HS)	Description of goods
8542 31 00	Electronic integrated circuits: – Processors and controllers, whether or not combined with memories, converters, logic circuits, amplifiers, clock and timing circuits or other circuits
8542 33 00	Electronic integrated circuits: Memories
8542 33 00	Electronic integrated circuits: Amplifiers
8542 39 00	Electronic integrated circuits: Other
8542 90 00	Parts

An Overview

Hence, Under the CHIMs chip importers are required to submit the advance information in the online system for the import of the above products to obtain the Registration Number or CHIMS License by paying the registration fee.

The data received through the CHIMs help the Government in effective policy formulations and implementations regarding steel imports.

The Data would be published by the Ministry of Electronics on the CHIMS portal.

Fee Requirement and Validity of registration numbers under CHIMS

A registration fee of Rs 1 per thousand subject to a minimum of Rs.100/- and maximum of Rs 500/- on aggregate CIF value of imports will need to be paid through electronic mode in the online system for each registration number.

Registration number/CHIMS License is valid for 75 days after approval.
